Administration

Mr. C. A. Waltz
Superintendent of the Mansfield City Schools

Mr. Waltz has now been Superintendent of the Mansfield City Schools for two years. He has shown himself to be very capable and no doubt his administration will continue to be quite successful. He is a very forceful man and an ardent advocate of soundness of school principles.

Board of Education

Mr. W. F. Fuchs

Mr. G. L. Davis
President

Mr. D. F. Shafer

Mr. G. Hoffman

Mr. A. M. Colley

Mr. Beer

Mr Beer is one of the finest leaders in scholastic activities, a very obliging man in every way possible, and one of the best administrators the school has ever known. He has been principal of Mansfield Senior High School for three years, and becomes more endeared to us as the years pass. Mr Beer, thoroughly a Mansfield Senior High backer, makes it his policy to become a part of everything that tends to the good of the school. He has always been a true friend to teachers and students, and takes a very great interest in affairs in which they need help.

Our Principal has succeeded admirably in carrying on his part in improving things around him, and the senior classes regret that graduation takes them from direct contact with his influence. He may be assured, however, of the graduates true love and respect for him, no matter how far away they may be. It is sincerely wished that all that we benefit from this man's careful guidance for many years.

Mr. Bishop

Mr Bishop, our Assistant Principal, is one of the most interesting characters known to us. His influence and interests extend to every corner of school, and we always admire that pleasant helpful manner with which he enters into activities with us. Integrety and loyalty fairly emanate from him, and on the shortest acquaintance, one finds great respect for his honesty and directness. He succeeds quite well in getting into close contact with students, which strongly indicates where his interests lie. When one needs advice on any matter, he is certain to get it, intelligently, from Mr. Bishop. It is certain that a deep respect and appreciation exists for him in the school.

Hyphonerian

The rumble of the press as it rolls out the first issue of the Hyphonerian every two weeks would thrill the most unemotional senior. The tang of the printer's ink is to the weary "gentlemen of the press" what salt air is to the sailor.

Previous to publication day, too long weeks have been spent on gathering and writing of news, the closing of ad contracts, and the clanging of the mighty linotype as it forms the molten lead into readable material.

This year has seen the change in the number of pages in the Hyphonerian, different body and headline type, and a reduction from six columns to five.

Editorial, feature, sports, news and business divisions of the paper have special workers.

Manhigan

"You see what we went this year is something different," quoth a very unanimous Manhigan staff. So "something different" was what the staff set out to make. It eliminated all unnecessary and superfluous material, omitted things not of interest, and endeavored to present its product in a novel manner. The advisors of the staff were experienced, without them the work would have been a deluge. Time flew. The classes cooperated well. The work was interesting and engaging. The school year drew to a close, and here is the Manhigan. The staff and classes of 1931 hope its publication will be popular.

Student Representative Committee

The Student Representative Committee is, as the name implies, a group of students chosen to represent the student body at large. The purpose of this committee is to encourage and maintain student responsibility in academic as well as extra-curricular activities, to foster cooperation between the students and faculty, and to promote the general welfare of the school.

The membership of this committee consists of one delegate and one alternate from each home room except 210 and 211 which are represented by four students and one alternate each. The principal has the power to appoint three members at large from the student body.

To be eligible for this committee a student must be an undergraduate, must maintain an average of C with no failing grades, must carry a normal amount of work in major subjects, and must be reliable. This committee was organized last spring.

The committee has established a monitor system, a satisfactory lost and found department, and has truly promoted the general welfare of the school.

The project worked upon first semester this year was the Red and White Band Book which was a very worthwhile project and the result was most gratifying.

The project for the second semester was the developing of a method of keeping an accurate record of the extra-curricular activities of the students.

The officers elected in September were Beth Littlefield, president, Haskell Smith, vice-president, Robert Fichter, secretary, and Albert Vogle, treasurer. When election was held this semester, Vera Shoemaker was elected president; Ted Brooks, vice-president; Dorothy Caldwell, secretary; and Lyman Gerould, treasurer.

Scholarship Club

The Scholarship Club was organized in 1928 for the purpose of helping pupils to become interested in scholarships. Membership is offered only to those who have fourteen points, this is the minimum limit. A counts four points, B three, and C two. Only points in four major subjects are counted, and the grade in a fifth subject must not be lower than C. Even after becoming a member if the pupil fails to attend regularly, he is dropped from the roll.

One of the most outstanding things accomplished by the Scholarship Club in the past year was the progress made in tutoring pupils who had fallen behind in their work. A student belonging to this organization who is proficient in one line of school work may offer his services to any pupil who might desire his assistance in his studies.

Various other members have looked up the entrance requirements of a number of colleges. These requirements were listed in an orderly fashion and placed on file in the library. The files not only help the pupil plan his high school course for the college he is going to enter, but also they give him the satisfaction of knowing that he has consulted a wide range of information.

Recently the club took up a new study - that of parliamentary law. After the business meeting and program, the president becomes one of the mass meeting. For this period of drill the group chooses a new chairman. They then proceed with another meeting in which motions are made, seconded, and carried. The chairman keeps his position only as long as he makes no mistakes. When he makes an error, the one who corrects him takes his place and the meeting continues. This as anyone can see is a very valuable and practical plan; for nearly as everyone sometime or other in his life has to serve as an officer, or chairman of a group or club. A little training such as is offered in the Scholarship Club will not then come amiss.

Officers are elected each semester. Mr Kramer is faculty advisor for the club and is keenly interested in all of its undertakings.

Photo Club

This organization has a motto that any club in the school should envy. Its creed is "To be of service to all school organizations such as, Hyko and Manhigan in helping them to obtain pictures and illustrative materials that they may need from time to time." This group has not only carried out the above creed, but has set a standard which requires the full cooperation of each member to make it the aggressive business-like organization that it is. In the past year many new members have been taken in to the group; they all say that this is one of the most interesting organizations of which they were ever members.

Contests are held in the club among the members and prizes are awarded for the best pictures. During the past year they have specialized in coloring photos. Much work has been done for students in school, such as developing films and enlarging favorite snapshots. Pictures for the Manhigan were taken by this group. These pictures included those of football games, track meets, all individual football and basketball pictures as well as some group pictures. Pictures were also taken of school parties and other functions. Field trips are taken on various occasions and many interesting snapshots result from these expeditions. Events of this kind keep the interest of the members aroused at all times. Reports on various phases of photography are given which add interest to the meetings.

Any student acquainted with Mr. Fred Elder, the faculty advisor, knows him for his broad sense of humor and his extreme good nature. He is always willing to work with a club member and aid him in any way possible. This attitude of cooperation helps to make this organization the success that it is.

Latinas Sodalitas

Latinas Sodalitas was organized six years ago by two of Mrs. Chase's Cicero classes. The purpose of this as suggested at the first gathering, as for good times and scholarship. If one should read the records of the meetings since that time, one would find that the purpose has been entirely fulfilled. This group was at first called "The Latin Club of Mansfield High School" but two years later was named "Latinas Sodalitas", which when translated, means the same as the former name. The officers for the first semester of this year were: Consul, Jane Brucker; Scryptor, Virginia Starkey; Questor, Virginia Farber. The following were chosen at mid-year elections: Consul, Dorothy Caldwell; Scryptor, Eleanor Clingan; Questor, Barney Burns.

On every other Friday during the C. L. A. period a meeting is held, at which time an interesting program is presented. Last fall our advisor, Mrs. Chase, and a delegate from the club attended a Roman Banquet which was held at Mt. Gilead, and a most delightful account was given of this event. The students learn much about the home, social, and industrial life of the Romans. Mrs. Chase sometimes tells about her travels in Italy and does so with many entertaining descriptions which appeal greatly to the members of the organization. At Christmas time we had a grab bag and were also provided with a treat by our advisor. Games which are both amusing and instructive are played.

The requirement for admission to this club is that one must have at least two years of Latin. Several years ago a small Latin scroll pen was adopted as an emblem for the group. The motto which was selected for the Latinas Sodalitas when the club was first formed was "Vincit qui se vincit." When translated this means "He conquers who conquers himself." It is an exceptionally good motto for any organization, for conquering oneself is something which must be done before one is able to measure up to the high standards of everyday life.

Red Masque Club

The Red Masque Club was organized in 1920 by Miss Emma Waring who has by her capable leadership made it one of the outstanding clubs of the school. The meetings are held twice a month and officers are elected twice a year: the first semester Beth Critchfield was president, Charles Stamm, treasurer, Charles McKinley, vice president, Virginia Farber, Secretary. The second semester, Charles Stamm was president, Marjorie Gongwer, vice president; Charles McKinley, secretary; and James McDevitt, treasurer. The purpose of the club is to create an interest and develope an appreciation for dramatic art.

The first semester of this year was spent in studying the basic principles of dramatic art. At the meetings one act plays were presented including historical plays, comedies, a farce and tragedies. These proved both enjoyable and instructive as individual interpretation was encouraged. "Taking Father's Place" was well presented at assembly. It humorously depicted the downfall of the conceit of youth. Another interesting and amusing play which was given in an assembly was "The Missing Link." This year at Christmas time, the Red Masque under the direction of Miss Waring presented an entertainment suitable for the occasion, "Why the Chimes Rang." This was most artistically and beautifully portrayed. In the background was a huge colored window lighted by several candelabra which made a beautiful cathedral setting.

The first half of the second semester was devoted to the study of make-up. This art is almost as necessary in dramatic acting, for poor make-up often spoils the effect of a good play. One of the features offered as a program for the club was an interesting speech given by Mr. John Rowe of the Community Players. The annual part to which the alumni were invited proved to be one of the most successful given by this organization.

Le Cercle Francais

Le Cercle Francais which was started last year in response to the many requests of French followers in an effort to promote interest in this language has now become a prominent organization led by Miss Mendenhall. Many students have taken the opportunity offered to them by a club of this nature. The club has thrived on the interest and enthusiasm of students of French. During an interesting meeting in January an election of officers was held. At present these officers are; Catherine Beverstock, President, Dorothy Caldwell, Vice President, Mary Phelps, Secretary, Charles McKinley, Treasurer.

The purpose of the club is to offer to French enthusiasts an occasion to speak French. The requirements for membership are a passing grade in the subject and at least one semester of French study. The business and the programs are carried on in French. A different type of program is presented at each meeting. The programs often consist of either plays, poems, the telling of stories and jokes, interesting customs of the French, and even a gym class conducted in French. The desirable advantages which a club of this nature affords are numerous and very evident. The members are aided, not only in their present study of French, but also in their future associations with this language, for by speaking French at the meetings, the members are able to put into practice the principles they learn in their classes. In the club, work is turned into pleasure, and French class work is carried over into this social group.

Meetings are held twice each month, alternating with the Latin Club on Friday, the L. L. A. period, in room 117.

German Club

The German Club was organized to further interest in the German Language, and give students a wider view of the customs and interests of Germany. All German students are eligible to the organization. Meetings are held every two weeks during the C. C. A. period and are both novel and interesting. Some of the things accomplished has been a better appreciation of the German Music, the study of German stories and the collection and study of German coins.

This group of students have taken charge of the assembly Programs on various occasions, and have done splendid work along this line.

When "Back to School Night" was held for the parents this year, Miss Ruess met the visitors at the door of her room, and smilingly invited them to enter her "German Village". She and her German Club had transformed the room by use of quaint drawings and quotations on the blackboards and other decorations, giving the room a decided German aspect. She made her guests feel that this was truly a place where German was taught, and gave them an idea of the work of the German department in our school.

Anyone who is at all acquainted with Miss Ruess, the faculty advisor for this group, knows her as a friend. She always has time for a smile, a pleasant word, or a helpful thought to aid one. Those coming in contact with her cannot help being impressed by her pleasing personality, and her willingness to do her bit to make life the brighter. It is very seldom necessary for her to speak a harsh word to the student for her pleasing manner creates a respect that makes one work with her rather than against her. These are the things that have aided considerably in making this club the success that it is.

The officers elected this year were; President, Maryanne Bechel, Vice-President, Betty Weil; Secretary and Treasurer, Paul Flohr. All have shown their ability by the manner in which they have filled their offices.

Social Science Service Club

"Service for others" is the suitable slogan of the Social Science Service Club which is an honorary organization composed of students who excel in subjects of Social Science. The purpose of this club is to promote the spirit of work and service in our school and community. This is done by discussing and studying traits and characteristics that lead to a life of service.

This club was organized in 1926 and held its initial meeting on February 26 of that year. Since then it has done much toward serving the school and the community by aiding in the annual Red Cross drive, by collecting money and contributions for the Humane Society, and by aiding fellow students who are found to be in need. Picture shows have been sponsored by this club, the proceeds of which have been used to carry on this good work. When a request was made for helpers at the Friendly House, the members gladly responded as they have in every instance where their personal services were needed.

The programs consist of reports given by the members on the service which other people have rendered to the world, and talks given by the leaders or workers of local charity organizations. The theme of this club is "The Dignity and Greatness of Work and Workers". The present officers are: President, John Fike; Vice-President, Joe Sedlack; Secretary, Virginia Kersch; and Treasurer, Charles Oberlin. Mr. O. D. Coe is the advisor for this group, and it has been largely due to his untiring efforts that it has become one of the outstanding organizations of the school.

Setting April 17 as the date for their major production, the two third period Glee Clubs presented Gustave Kuder's musical comedy, "The Prince of Pilsen". The story centers about Hans Wagner, a retired brewery man from Cincinatti, who while traveling abroad with his daughter, Nellie, is mistaken for the Prince of Pilsen. The action takes place in the International Hotele at Nice, France. The real prince on his arrival, falls in love with Nellie, and because of this permits Hans to carry on under his name. There are Mrs Crocker, a widow, who is interested in acquiring a second husband, Artie, an Englishman, who in Hans, has a competitor for the widow's hand, Francois, the hotel concierge, in love with Sidonie, one of the maids, and Edith, the leading soprano, one of the group of Vassar girls, who come to Nice while touring Europe. The chorus is made up of waiters, Vassar girls, Heidelberg students, gendarmes, naval cadets, and fox hunters.

The groups which gave this production have also taken part in assembly programs during the year, and several members participated in the All State Chorus at Columbus, last December.

Because of the great number of girls interested in glee club it was necessary to organize a third group of singers, who chose for their name, "The Orpheans". This club has already made its public appearance in assembly, and promises to become an outstanding musical organization in the high school.

Naomi Hammett
Musical Director
1931 Minstrels

With an unusual amount of talent under the able direction of Mr. J. Merton Holcombe the ninth annual Band Minstrel show was successfully presented to a full house on February 20th.

Miss Naomi Hammett and her ten piece orchestra, who accompanied the artists, contributed their talent to make the Minstrels a success.

Alan Griffin replaced Mr. Holcombe as Interlocutor in this year's production.

Special mention should be given to the stage crew for the setting which they erected under the able direction of Miss Waring.

Band

Are we proud of our band? and why not? Competing with bands from all over the state, they won first place in '26 contest, second in '27, and first again in '30. They also had the honor of playing at the State-Wisconsin football game at Columbus last Fall. Up to that time no highschool band had ever had such an opportunity.

The fact that the highschool band occupies such a prominent place among other organizations of W. S. H. S. and has gained a statewide reputation is due to our conductor, Mr. Holcombe, who is always working to bring great honors here, and has earned the everlasting respect and admiration from all who know him.

George Williams Sr. Hi-Y

In accordance with their purpose: "To create, maintain, and extend throughout the school and community high standards of Christian character," the George Williams Sr. Hi-Y has been outstanding this year for its influence in our school. As well as influencing us, this organization has done material service by giving us a very impressive assembly program, taking charity responsibilities during the Christmas Season, and assuming charge of the High School check room.

The club was fortunate in getting "Bob" Horrocks to take Mr. Caldwell's place as supervisor, but regretted very much that "Bob" was forced to leave when the Y. M. C. A. was closed. Mr. Chapman is acting as leader at present. With the Y. M. C. A. taken from it, the club felt quite put out, but resumed its meetings in the First Congregational Church. Mr. H. D. Bishop acting as Faculty Advisor has added much to the group.

The vision of some of its members was broadened considerably by the experience at the Older Boys' Conference in Youngstown in November. Besides the valuable points on personality development, tales of good times were reported by the delegates. Due to the inability of its president to attend, Lyman Gerould was chosen to go with Mr. Bishop and Mr. Horrocks to the President Conference in Columbus the last of January.

Another light thrown on the club by the Conference was the need of a stricter Parliamentary procedure, so an extensive program on the study of parliamentary law was carried out this year. This study has helped materially to make a business-like and progressive club. The executive group this year consisted of Lionel Smalty, president; Don Mathews, vice-president; Franklin Schaeffer, secretary; and Charles Stamm, treasurer. These fellows were quite active in other school affairs, but found time to make the Sr. Hi-Y better for 1931.

2. W. Smith, Beal, D Smith, Gedeiker, Sturges, R. Wolcott, Mr Chapman.

Hi-Y Diversion 2

This organization holds the same position in the school as the George Williams Sr. Hi-Y, but its members are chose of the Sophomore Class.

The purpose of the club is to create, maintain, and extend throughout the community high standards of Christian character. Its motto is "Clean speech, clean scholarship, clean sportsmanship, and clean living."

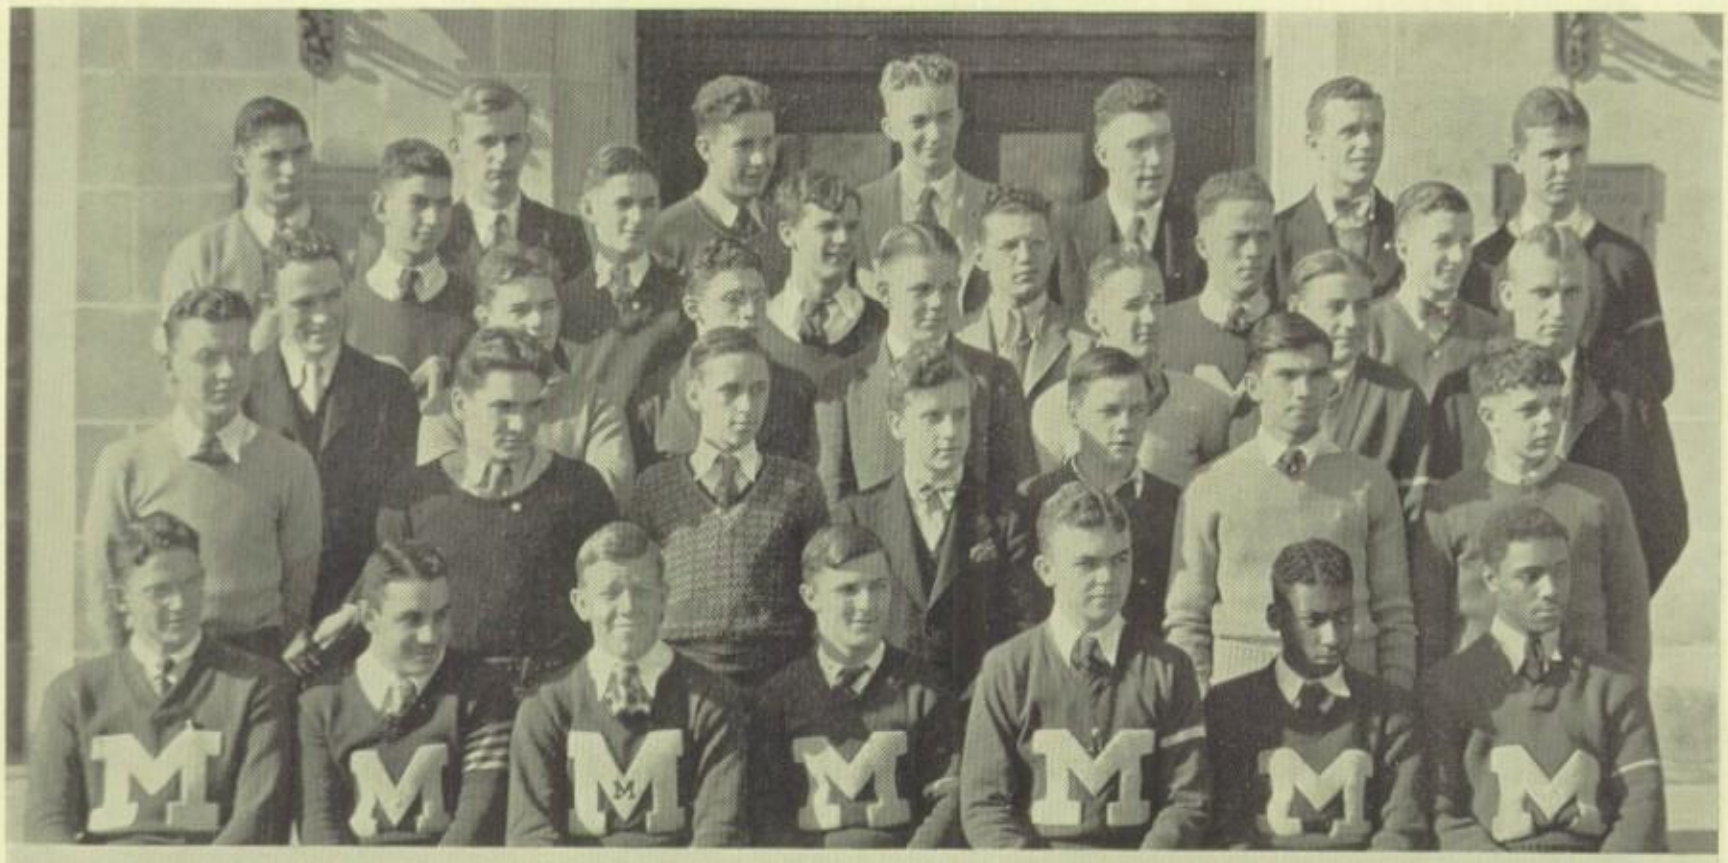
The things that these young fellows have accomplished during the past year are quite remarkable, considering the conditions under which they have had to carry on. During the year the Y.M.C.A. building was closed, but these boys have continued their meetings wherever they could find a place to get together. They were also unfortunate in that they lost the Y.M.C.A. adviser, W. Horrocks, at the same time, and have been without any regular older guidance since then.

Owing to the labor conditions many men and families have been in need this year. The fellows have done their utmost to help any worthy home that is in need. At Christmas time food was given to people who were in need, and other charitable acts have been performed.

In November, an Older Boys Conference was held at Youngstown. The President of the club, Albert Hartman, attended this conference, and some very fine thoughts and suggestions were brought back to the group for discussion, which have proven helpful in many ways. The president also attended the Hi-Y Presidents' Congress at Columbus in January, and from this Congress useful information was gained and brought back to the boys.

The boys have felt keenly the loss of their adviser Mr. Robert Horrocks, who left Mansfield when the Y.M.C.A. closed. He was a very competent leader, and his cheery smiles and ready information made him very well liked among the boys.

The officers are elected in June of each year. This year's executives were: President, Albert Hartman; Vice-President, Wm. McClurg; Secretary, Mark Wolcott and Treasurer, Harold Belesky.



1. Stoodt, Fetter, Myers, Altaffer, Fichter, Cook, Brandon.
2. Grau, Ohly, Oberlin, Schroff, Forrest, Zirkoff, Wolcott.
3. Coach Murphy, Brooks, Pres., Smalts, Smith, Dickerson, Logie, Physical Dir. Mehock.
4. Shade, Courtney, Schwier, Carick, Markley, Granger.
5. Bowser, Flohr, Holmquist, Jenour, Waltz, Miller, Judy.

The "M" Association

The "M" Association compromises the fellows who have earned their letters either in some sport or ass. manager or trainer. The cheerleaders (boys) are also eligible to to the organization. When a fellow receives his letter one of the conditions is that he may join the association. Mr. Mehock, the sponsor of the club, organized the "M" association about five years ago, and has since done much for the success of it. Both Mr. Mehock and Mr. Murphy are to be complemented for the success of this group.

This association has done much toward promoting an increased interest in athletics in the school, as it backs all of the athletic teams in a way that no other organization has ever done. When fellows are needed to help out at football or basketball games, the members of this group always respond readily. At the track meets, especially the big relays, the "M" fellows work as hard for the success of the affair as anyone concerned.

Since the institution of this club, more fellows have turned out for athletics than ever before. This commendable act reflects its worth as one looks over the records of the teams during the last four or five years, and the club can well be proud of this.

During the last year a new constitution was drawn up. It was hoped that new life would thus be given the organization and with a higher purpose, greater influence would be felt throughout the school. The accomplishment of this worthy purpose seems to be well under way.

The Officers for the past year were, Don Mathews and Ned Brooks, Co-Presidents, and were also Co-Captains on the football team; Richard Myers was Secy and Treas. These boys carried on the executive work of this organization in a very competent manner.

Girls' Athletic Association

The Girls' Athletic Association has proved very successful this year in its aim to get more girls interested in athletics. A student was chosen by Miss Sellers to head each sport and assist her in running off the games. These girls along with the officers of the club formed what is known as the A. A. Board, which is the executive unit of the organization. A wide range of sports under the splendid supervision of Miss Sellers have made the A. A. one of the most outstanding clubs for girls in the school.

The A. A. has not confined itself to the developent of sports alone but has held a party every party. These parties have brought the girls together and made those girls, having a common interest in athletics, better friends.

Inter-squad tournaments caused a great deal of friendly rivalry and added new interest to the gym classes. Each class is devided into squads. Squad leaders are given 20 points toward their A. A. insignia.

Swimming this year has again been an elective subject. Miss Sellers was able, by having only girls interested in swimming, to make great progress in her classes.

2. Wainright, Bloom, Yaurick, Cox, Pinger, M. Cox, Grimes, Spriggins, Anderson, Kegg.

The Girls' Athletic Association works to develope a love of sports and active recreation that will remain when the girls are out of school. It also sponsors a high form of leadership among the girls, as they serve as officials, team captains and managers, and officers of the entire group. Awards are made by means of a point system and points are given for activity in swimming, volleyball, basketball, baseball, track, tumbling, hiking, and superior class work.

Tall Travelers' Club

The Tall Travelers' Club, one of the newest and most successful clubs of Mansfield Senior High School, was organized October 6, 1930. Our principal, Mr. Beer, was chosen as faculty adviser and the following officers were elected: Pres. Carolene Bossler, Vice-Pres. Jane Wagner, Sec. Martha Buesser, Treas. Faith Van Silburg. Girls of any class rank are eligible, however, as the name suggests, the specific requirement for membership is that the girls are tall, at least five feet, seven in height. The membership is limited to forty. This is made possible by allowing only girls who make average grades in all subjects to be members. If grades fall below average, membership is suspended until proof is given that the scholarship rating is raised.

Meetings are held bi-weekly with dues of 10¢ a month. This organization is purely of an educational nature. At the meetings reports are given by various members concerning travel in different sections of the world. In these reports very many new and interesting things are learned in regard to modes of travel, most important places to be visited, accomodations offered, value of money in foreign countries, etiquette of tips, registrations, and other necessary factors. The programs are usually planned so that the girls who have been to particular sections of the country may tell of their experiences in traveling there.

One of the most important things the club has undertaken was the sale of Christmas Seals at the school this year. Seventy-five hundred seals were assigned to the Senior High School and the sales amounted to approximately six thousand. This was one of the most successful campaigns ever accomplished, as the seals were sold to students of this school, and not to outsiders. Plans were made to hold a party in the spring of the year. Second semester officers were elected: President, Edna Wigton, Vice-President, Aileen Hughes, Secretary, Carolene Bossler, Treasurer, Faith Van Silburg. Mr. Beer was retained as faculty adviser.

1 Kochenderfer, Anderson, Elsass, O'Brien, McElvain, Kuhn, Shoemaker, Swearinger, Beckman, Peat, Angle.

Blue Tri

In the history of M. S. H. S. there have been clubs from time to time with many and varying aims, but there has always been a Blue Tri, with the same purpose, "To find and give the best." From this they derive their slogan, "To face life squarely."

At the first meeting the following officers were elected: Pres. Vera Shoemaker; Vice Pres. Mary Lou Elsass; Sec. Jeanette Kochenderfer; Treas. Dorothy Peat. There have been many interesting events sponsored by the organization. The first was a faculty party given in November. The club came to the front in aiding the needy by the donation of several Thanksgiving baskets to unfortunate families. The organization presented an entertainment at the county infirmary where the girls left happy hearts as well as future amusement in the form of magazines, candy and cigars.

The high spot of the year was the annual High Jinks Frolic held March seventh. A few weeks ago the Mother and Daughter Banquet at the Y. W. closed another successful year for Blue Tri.

Football 1930

We once more find the Tygers on the gridiron striving to lengthen the string of undefeated games. This aggregation almost won, was made up of young and inexperienced men. Therefore they might be called the 35 Tyger Cubs. The public, because of its unfamiliarity was ready to criticize this young ball club. But the criticism turned to praise at the showing in the first league game of the year.

The Danville club was used as an opener. Although many mistakes were made throughout the game, the club showed ability as a coming ball club. The score was 54 to 12, bringing back memories of the power full 1929 club. The following week we journeyed to Bucyrus to play our first league game of the season. Before this game progressed far, the Tygers found themselves up against a stone wall which was broken by a beautiful field goal of 35 yards. This gave the Tygers more spirit and enabled them to get their one and only touchdown in the game missing the extra point after the touchdown. When the final gun cracked the Tygers found themselves victorious with a score of 9 to 0.

Galion vs Tygers 0-0

The second league game of the season the Tygers came out with neither a defeat nor a victory. This was an off day for the Tygers. Seemingly they could not push the pigskin over the last white line. The score of the game being 0-0 did not lower the spirit of the Tygers as you will read later on.

Akron Kenmore vs Tygers 25-6

The Murphymen were out for revenge and got it by swamping the tough Akron Kenmore club 25-6. This was one of the Tygers' best games of the season. The blocking was considerably improved and the timing of plays almost perfect.

Marion vs Tygers 6-6

The jinx of the Tygers is here again. The outcome being the same as last year only that both teams scored. Mansfield played slow ball all of the game and seemingly did not having stamina enough to beat the Residents. The score being 6-6.

Shelby vs Tygers 7-0

The Murphymen traveled to the boarder town to play their old rival, the Whippets. No one was made during the first half but the Tygers came back in the last stanza scoring a touch down and making the extra point. The kicking in the game was very good. As this was the second year the Tygers won, every Mansfield fan went home happy.

Toledo Woodward vs Tygers 14-7

Now comes the test of the season. The Tygers were to meet one of their toughest opponents Woodward, which had the greatest passing attack ever seen in the state. This was feared much by the Tygers. The Polar Bears outweighed the Tygers about 15 pound per man, having also probably the biggest club in the state. The Murphymen trained hard for this game. They especially worked on knocking down passes. The Tygers went through the Polar Bear line in such a manner the Tyger fans will never forget. They completely swamped these huskies and defeated them to the tune of 14-7.

Ashland vs Tygers 14-7

Thanksgiving and plenty old. The Tygers traveled to Ashland to win the N.C.O. Championship. A defeat or a tie would make it possible for the others to win. The Stars were out for the N.C.O. Championship also. This made the game more interesting and thrilling. After a few minutes of playing the Tygers scored a touchdown and secured the extra point. On the following kickoff Doran, a small fast Ashland halfback, skirted up the sidelines for a touchdown. The Orange and Black scored the extra point tying the score. In the last quarter, with only four minutes to play the Tygers blocked a punt which gave them the advantage to win. Through line plunging, Tygers put the oval over for a touchdown which won for them the game and also the N.C.O. League Trophy. This ended another beautiful season with no defeats to mar the wonderful record established by the 1924 Tygers.

Some of the records which are held by the Red Streaks are tied with or near to the state records.

Industrial Arts Department

The Industrial Arts Department of the Mansfield Senior High School is composed of the woodworking and mechanical drawing classes, taught by Mr. J. C. Smith.

At the present time the department consists of about sixty boys who are advanced in the industrial work. Recently an organization has been formed so that the boys may have a better knowledge of the advanced work and also that the people of Mansfield might know more about the splendid work being done by this department. An exhibition is being planned and is expected to be shown in some downtown store early this spring.

The advantages of this course are many. First the boy learns to draw his plans and to think out his problems before he has started his project. He is then allowed to go to the shop and complete his tentative. Included in the study of woodworking is the subject of forestry as the student should know the different kinds of wood.

The language of modern industry is told in mechanical drawing, an example is shown in the definition of a chair. A complete definition is almost impossible but through the medium of much drawing it may be quickly and easily explained. This fact underlies the drawing of plans for all buildings and mechanical parts of particular construction. As long as construction cannot be told in words, drawing will be in demand.

The Vocational course offers to the student a training in the fundamentals of a trade education. The course deals with the technique and arts of the metal trades as adapted to our local industrial requirements.

It trains one in the primary principles of industrial mathematics, mechanical drawing, and applied physics. The course further offers the only gateway to an apprenticeship training in any of Mansfields industrial plants. The course holds out to young men with native mechanical ability and a keen mind, an opportunity equal to that of any other course in the Mansfield Senior High School.

Seventy-five per cent will need this special training later in life.

Home Economics Club

Home making has been said to be changing more rapidly than any other occupation in the prlsent changing civilization. Education for homemaking, therefore must be kept constantly in touch with the newest developments in this field. Providing a satisfactory environment in the home for the development of the members of the family is the most important responsibility of the homemaker.

The two-year Vocational Home Economics course offered in High School is definitely planned to meet these changing conditions. Training is given in foods, clothing, house furnishing, family relationships, child care and home management. Adequate laboratories as well as a practice apartment are provided for classes in Home Economics.

Since it is believed that vocational education must be linked up with real jobs, home economics training provides simultaneously with class instruction, actual participation in homemaking both as a worker and a manager, for every individual enrolled in the course. Home project credit is given for this. This years semester course in Home Nursing has been added to the curriculum. For the successful completion of this course one-half unit of credit is received. It may be elected by any girl in high school.

A Home Economics Club was this year organized for the first time. The purposes of this club are to promote the interests of the department and to assist in its development, to stimulate interest in state and national development along home economics lines, to foster personal development of the girl, to promote friendship among students, to provide pleasure and experience of social meetings, and to bring to the club home economics activities that may not be included in the school course. The club meets in the Home Economics Apartment the third Tuesday of each month. It has affiliated with the Ohio Home Economics Association and the American Home Economics Association.

Pastor: So God has seen fit to send you two little brothers!

Little May: Yes, and he knows where the money is coming from. I heard Daddy say so.

Blondey (his steno): Your little daughter wants to kiss you over the phone.

Boss (absent-mindedly): Well, I'm busy. Take the message and I'll get it from you later.

Frosh: "Size two and a half."
Senior: "What!"
Frosh: "Yeah, two cowhides and a half a keg of nails."
Portrait of a polar bear in a snowstorm.
"Not quite original but almost"
He: "What was that noise?"
She: "Oh, grandma isn't used to her new false teeth and she just broke a saucer drinking her tea."
Doctor: "You'll be dead by morning."
Eskimo: "Hm-m. Three months more by gosh."
"They say three persons out of five have acting ability."
"Yes, and the other two go into the movies."
Stude: "Poor old Bill went ice-skating and got drowned."
Sec: "Did he go through the ice?"
Stude: "Naw. He fell down and Spring came before he could get up."

Little Willie—"I don't know! I thought that you were keeping score."

"How do you divide your two cars between your seven children, yourself, and your wife?"

"Oh, three ride in one and four in the other and I walk and my wife takes a taxi."

The absent-minded professor went out to lunch and left, pinned to his door, a card which read, "Professor X will be back at 1 P. M."

Returning at 12:30, he read the notice, looked at his watch, and sat down to wait for himself to return.

Congratulations to the Graduating Class

In our recognition of this important event in the lives of all those graduating from the Mansfield Senior High School, our heartiest congratulations are extended.

You are proceeding from this attained goal of accomplishment into a new and larger sphere of activity. Some have definite objectives and will pursue the things they like to do.

Success depends upon a wise decision — be sure you like to do those things — that they are constructively sound — that they represent a value to industry and society — then do them with enthusiasm.

That's all — and good luck

O-B Over the World

ALL THE WORLD'S A STAGE

ALL the world is a stage and setting for the part O-B plays in helping to develop natural resources, to force forward the frontiers of civilization, and to further industrial progress.

In Africa, the challenging roar of the lion is now answered by the humming sound from electric motors. In the Orient, the tinkling temple bells now ring in unison with the throbbing of industry. In the land of the Aztecs, gold and silver bearing ore is now hauled to the surface by electricity. In Europe, the old methods of hand production are fast giving way to the new era of machine production.

Whenever electricity has been harnessed to the back-breaking loads formerly borne on human shoulders, there you will find O-B products helping to lighten the burden and to do the work cheaper and more effectively. During the past year, materials made in Mansfield have been shipped to 61 different countries.
